RULES & REGULATIONS

- All children must be registered by a parent/guardian prior to participating in any Youth Programs.
- Carnival's policy is to group children together according to their age. The age is determined according to the child's birth date.
- There is no sign in/out policy for teens ages 12-17. They are free to come and go as they choose for activities.
- Hours, activities and location are subject to change.
- Parents at all times are responsible for their children's behavior and compliance with Carnival's Youth Programs onboard policies and Carnival's shipboard use of facilities. Failure to comply with rules and regulations may result in teen's dismissal from Youth Programs.
- In the event your teen requires regular medication while participating in Youth Programs, parents/guardians must return to administer that medication. If a teen becomes unruly or ill as a result of parents/guardians not returning to administer medication, the teen will not be permitted back into the program. The Youth staff may not store or administer any medication and/or needles for any teen participating in the Youth Program; only epi-pens & inhalers will be allowed inside the teen program.
- Medical care consent is required for participating in Carnival Youth Programs.
- Unruly behavior will not be permitted in Youth Programs. The Youth Staff reserve the right to remove and exclude from any further participation anyone demonstrating unacceptable or aggressive behavior, including but not limited to biting, fighting, hitting, throwing, kicking, foul language, verbal and physical bullying, threatening harm to self or others, bringing or consuming alcohol & tobacco.
- Youth Programs is not responsible for any items brought into the facility - please do not bring any personal items or valuables.
- Parents and guardians are responsible for the safety and wellbeing of their children while in our pool, whirlpools and water slides. Our pools are not designed for diving and no diving is allowed.
