KING'S WHARF, BERMUDA

King's Wharf, Bermuda's third port after Hamilton and St. George's, is often referred to as the West End or the Royal Naval Dockyard. Built for the British Navy between 1814 and 1863 as a base to launch a raid on Washington, D.C. by thousands of convicts from prison ships, it was once dubbed Gibraltar of the West. Abandoned in 1951, today, King's Wharf offers an endless array of activities for all ages, be it culture, water sports, dining, shopping or simply relaxing at the beach.

HAMILTON, BERMUDA: Hamilton attracts the most visitors. See the town on foot, hop on any one of the surreys lined up along Front Street.
